Typically, holders of the qualification will be able to:

- ‡ deal with complex issues in an organised and creative manner, make sound judgements in the absence of complete data, and communicate their conclusions clearly to veterinary colleagues and to non-veterinary audiences, including clients;
- ‡ demonstrate self direction and originality in tackling and solving problems, and act autonomously in planning and implementing tasks in their professional area of work;
- ‡ continue to advance their knowledge and understanding, and to develop new skills to a high level;

Candidates will have the qualities and transferable skills necessary for professional veterinary work requiring:

- ‡ the exercise of initiative and personal responsibility;
- ‡ decision-making in complex and unpredictable situations; and
- ‡ the independent learning ability required for continuing professional development.
