

1. Applies to cohort commencing in:

Intake 2017

2. Degree Granting Body

22. Other External Reference Points

Quality Assurance Agency, The Framework for Higher Education Qualifications in England, Wales and Northern Ireland

Qualifications and Curriculum Authority – Level descriptors for positioning units in the Qualifications and Credit Framework

Royal College of Veterinary Surgeons (RCVS) Accreditation Handbook for the Diploma in Advanced Veterinary Nursing and RCVS Diploma in Advanced Veterinary Nursing Framework

Subject Benchmark Statements For Veterinary Nursing (2015)

Veterinary Surgeons Act (1966)

Lantra Veterinary Nursing and Auxiliary Services National Occupational Standards July 2010

RCVS Code of Professional Conduct for Veterinary Nurses 2012

23. Aims of programme

The broad educational aims of the programme are to:

24. Overall Programme

Practical and/or professional skills and attributes On successful completion of the course, learners will be able to:

1. Operate in complex and unpredictable situations, selecting and applying appropriate skills from a wide range of innovative and standard techniques
2. Act autonomously, with minimal supervision or direction, within agreed professional, legal and local guidelines
3. Carry out tasks with confidence and creativity to enhance the quality of care
- 4.

28. Programme structures and requirements, levels, modules, credits and awards

Year/Term	Module Title	FHEQ Level	Credits
------------------	---------------------	-----------------------	----------------